Dear Dr Tarassenko:

We are delighted to invite and welcome the individual detailed below to the 21st International Conference on Condensed Matter Science (ICCF-21), from June 2, 2018 to June 9, 2018 at The Lory Student Center, at Colorado State University, Fort Collins, CO, USA, which is organized by LENRIA Corporation.

ICCF-21 is the world's leading conference providing presentations and communications on the science, technology and engineering of Low Energy Nuclear Reactions (LENR). Leading scientists and industry experts will converge from many countries to discuss all phases of LENR, both fundamental and applied. ICCF-21 will provide a unique and timely opportunity to discuss the latest advances in LENR.

Last/Family Name: Tarassenko
